79 Compound nouns

A What are compound nouns?

This is common in English: word + word = new word. For example:

police + officer = police officer phone + number = phone number bath + room = bathroom art + gallery = art gallery

- We write some compound nouns as one word, e.g. bathroom, but many are two words, e.g. phone number.
- Many compound nouns are easy to understand when you know the other words, e.g. railway station, address book, first floor, dining room, bus stop, dishwasher. Sometimes they are less easy to understand, e.g. a disc jockey (usually called a DJ) is a person who plays music on the radio and in clubs.
- You will meet many compound nouns as you learn English: past tense; past participle; phrasal verb (see Unit 99); capital letter, e.g. ABC; full stop (at the end of a sentence); question mark = ?
- With compound nouns, the main stress is usually on the first word, e.g. phone number, but sometimes it is on the second word, e.g. full stop.

1 Underline the main stress on these compound words. Use the APP to help you. Practise saying the words.

▶ art gallery ▶ full stop bathroom railway station first floor address book bus stop phone number dishwasher capital letter police officer

2 What do we call these places or things? Use a compound noun to label each picture.

6 My parents live on the first ..... of the building.
7 I waited at the bus ..... for about twenty minutes.
8 Get on and get off are both ..... verbs.
9 You have to put a ..... stop at the end of the sentence.
10 A new sentence always begins with a ..... letter.

TEST YOURSELF

B Introducing a surprising idea

These words link two ideas when the second idea is surprising after the first idea.

Word	Example	Meaning
but	We had sunny weather, but it was quite cold. He worked hard, but he didn't pass the exam.	links two ideas, usually in one sentence. Sometimes there is a comma (,) with a longer sentence.
however	We had sunny weather. However, it was quite cold. He worked hard. However, he didn't pass the exam.	links two ideas, usually in two different sentences. There is a comma after however. However is more formal than but.
although/ though	Although we had sunny weather, it was quite cold, especially in the morning.* He worked hard, although he didn't pass the exam. I went to the party. I was quite tired, though.	(the second part sounds like go) links two ideas in one sentence. Although often goes at the beginning of the sentence, but can go in the middle, after a comma. In spoken English, you often use though.

SPOTLIGHT still

You can use still to make the second idea a bigger surprise:

- We had sunny weather, but it was still quite cold in the evenings.
- He worked hard. However, he still didn't pass the exam.

4 Rewrite the sentences using the link word in CAPITALS.

▶ The exam was easy. I didn't pass. HOWEVER The exam was easy. However, I didn't pass.

4 It was snowing. We decided to go out. BUT/STILL .....

5 We lost our dog. We found it after an hour. HOWEVER .....

6 I wore a coat. I was cold. ALTHOUGH/STILL .....

7 I watched the whole programme. I didn't enjoy it. THOUGH .....

8 We had a big lunch. Jason was hungry. HOWEVER/STILL .....

5 Make six sentences or pairs of sentences from the table using but or however.

▶ I didn't feel well. ✓		I only had to wait five minutes.
I was really hungry,		I stayed at work to finish the job.
I was last in the queue.		someone lent me a jacket.
I was very cold.	but ~~However,~~	I had to wait until 10.00 for dinner.
I was very frightened,		someone held my hand.
I was late for the party.		I was fine the next day. ✓
I was really tired.		everybody was still there.

▶ I didn't feel well. However, I was fine the next day.

Paul: Where are you traveling to now?

Cheryl: Mrs. Beatty is going on a safari in the Okavanga Delta in Botswana.

Paul: Nice. Are you flying in or are you taking the …… route?

Mrs. Beatty: I'm going to be taking the donkey.

Paul: I did that ……. myself.

Cheryl: You did?

Mrs. Beatty: Was it very exciting?

Paul: Oh, it was. …….. the plane had mechanical problems.

Mrs. Beatty: That sounds scary.

Paul: We got in late and I missed the train to Francistown, so I decided to take a bus. But I got on the …….. bus by mistake.

Mrs. Beatty: I don't like local buses.

Paul: Then the bus had an accident. So I rented a car, but it …….

Mrs. Beatty: Oh, dear!

Paul: I got to Gum are two days late. Then I got seasick on the boat to the island.

Mrs. Beatty: Oh, my! Did you have any problems with the donkey?

Paul: I got …….. from the donkey.

Mrs. Beatty: You mean they …… the donkey?

Paul: No. I mean the donkey bumped me off the road to the hotel. But it was a very exciting trip. You'll love Africa.

Cheryl: So. Any questions, Mrs. Beatty?

Mrs. Beatty: Just one. How much is a ticket to Paris?

Unit 9 On-The-Street Interviews

Interviewer. Do you fly frequently?

Lisa: Yes, I fly maybe ……. a month.

Interviewer. Do you fly ……?

San: I do, yes. I travel a lot with my job, so I'm always on an ……...

Interviewer: What kind of a …….. do you request when you fly?

Christiane: I always want to …….…….. at the aisle, so I can …….. my legs.

Joe: I prefer to sit in the back of the plane in a window seat.

Lisa: I always get a window seat.

Interviewer: Why?

Lisa: I like to sleep, and I need something to lean up …….

Interviewer. So, have you had any problems with traveling in terms of ……. flights? Missing flights? Anything like that?

San: Yes, I have. I've missed a flight. Flights have been canceled. They've been delayed. I've had to either go home, or if it's in a city that.... where I'm not from, I've had to get a hotel.

Interviewer: So could you tell me your worst airplane travel ……?

Christiane: Yes. When I had to fly from Austria to America, I got stuck in London airport and had to wait ten hours for a flight that got ……. first canceled then postponed. And all the stores were closed, and all we could do was just sleep on benches and on the floor and try to find food. That was not very good, so it was not a good experience.

Interviewer: That sounds awful.

Christiane: Yes, it was awful.

Unit 10 Scene 1

Marie: Hey, here comes Bob.

Paul: Yeah. He wants to …….. me his digital camera.

Bob: Hi. How was dinner?

Marie: Great. What do you have there?

Bob: The best digital camera …… can buy. Marie: Paul, that's the same camera you looked...

Paul: Why are you selling it?

Bob: I have two. Cheryl gave me another one for my birthday.

Paul: It's not bad. How much do you want?

Bob: Two hundred and fifty dollars.

Marie: Wow! That's a great...

Paul: That's more than ……...

Marie: But that's less than.

Paul: I can give you $200 for it.

Bob: No. I need ……. $245.

Paul: Sorry, all I have is $210.

Marie: There's an ATM right..

Bob: I could go as …….. as $230, but that's it.

Paul: Sorry. Thanks anyway.

Bob: All right. I'll sell it to somebody else.

Marie: What are you doing? You almost bought that camera yesterday for three hundred dollars!

Paul: You don't know how to …….., do you?

Marie: Bargain? ……. I know how to bargain. You don't know how to bargain. You could buy that camera for two hundred and thirty dollars, but now it's gone!

Bob: All right. You can have it for $225.

Paul: $220.

Bob: $224.

Paul: $221.

Bob: $223.

Paul: $222. Not a dollar more.

Bob: I'm not selling this for less than two hundred and twenty-three dollars.

Marie: Here! Here's one dollar! Now you both get what you want

Paul: It's a …….! I'll get some money from the ATM

Bob: Great!

Unit 10 Scene 2

Paul: Thanks.

Marie: Thanks for dinner.

Paul: My pleasure. I saved a lot of money on the camera.

Marie: Should I ……. the tip?

Paul: No, I'll put it on the …….

Marie: Five dollars? That's not enough.

Paul: Sure it is.

Marie: The bill was fifty dollars. That's only 10%!

Paul: So?

Marie: Didn't you like the food?

Paul: It was good.

Marie: Was there a problem with the ……?

Paul: No.

Marie: Then you need to …… at least 15%.

Paul: No, I don't.

Marie: Paul, we come here all the time. The waitress gives us great service because we usually tip well.

Paul: I always leave 10%.

Waitress: Have a nice evening.

Marie: We're not …… ready.

Waitress: No problem.

Paul: Look, I'm paying tonight, so I get to decide how much to tip.

Marie: Oh, all right. Hey, isn't that Mr. Evans over there?

Paul: Where?

Marie: Never mind. It's someone else. ……. we go?

Waitress: Thank you very much!

Paul: You're welcome.
