83 Phrasal verbs: grammatical patterns

Inseparable phrasal verbs

With inseparable phrasal verbs, you cannot put other words between the different parts of the phrasal verb. These include phrasal verbs that don't take an object.

Verb	Example	Meaning
pull up	The driver pulled up in front of the hospital.	(of a car or its driver) stop
drop by	Please drop by if you're in the area.	go to sb's house on an informal visit or without telling them that you are coming stay up	We stayed up late to watch the match last night.	go to bed later than usual
go off	I woke up when the alarm clock went off.	make a sudden loud noise

I broke down in the countryside.

I woke up at 7 o'clock.

Look out! The floor's wet.

Some phrasal verbs take an object, which can only go after the phrasal verb. All phrasal verbs with three parts belong to this group.

get into sth	Mina wants to get into teaching when she finishes university.	start a career in a particular profession
run into sb SYN bump into sb	I ran into Daisy in the sports centre – what a surprise!	meet sb by chance
take up sth	Sport takes up all my time.	use or fill time or space
go off sth	I've gone off coffee – it keeps me awake.	stop liking or being interested in sth
get out of sth/ doing sth	I've got a meeting this afternoon, but I'll try and get out of it.	avoid a duty or doing sth that you have said you will do
come up with sth	Max came up with a great way of saving money.	find an answer or solution to sth

Separable phrasal verbs

I turned the volume up.

I threw the papers away.

I switched the light on.
(OPP switch sth off)

fill sth in	I received the form, so I filled it in.	complete a form, etc. by writing information on it
check sth out	We're going to check out the restaurants in the area.	find out more information about sth put sth out	They put the fire out very quickly.	make sth stop burning, e.g. a fire, cigarette, etc.

SPOTLIGHT separable phrasal verbs

With separable phrasal verbs, the object can go (1) after the verb and particle, (2) or between the verb and the particle, but (3) a pronoun must go between the verb and particle.

1 He put on his jacket. ✓ 2 He put his jacket on. ✓ 3 He put it on. ✓ (NOT He ~~put on it.~~)

94 Hopes and plans

Today's guests are Jettrin from Thailand, Nadia from Dubal in the United Arab Emirates, and Sujeet from Nepal. We're all first-name here, so let me welcome Jettrin, Nadia, and Sujeet

M1: Sawatdee Khrab, Millicent, Good morning I'm Jettrin from Thailand

F2: Hello. It's nice to be with you. I'm Nadia from Dubel

M2: And good morning, Millicent, Jettrin, and Nadia. Sujeet here from Nepal.

F1: OK. Let's get started. I see our first caller is ……. Hello, Arturo from Montevideo. You're on the air

M3: Good morning- actually, good evening. It's 10:30 at night here in Montevideo Here's my question I'm traveling …….. business to Thailand next month, and ……. with Thai business managers from my company. What should I know?

M1: Hello. Arturo Jettrin here, Just a couple of things: First, a taboo -Don't touch anyone's head, not even a child's M3: Hmm? Well, I don't ……. touch people's heads, but if you don't mind my asking, what's wrong with touching someone's head?

M1: Well, we believe the head is where the person's soul lives. So it's very ……. and …… to touch a person's head.

M3: Any other tips?

M1: Well, when you are …….., be sure not to cross your legs in such a way that others can see the bottom of your foot

M3: Actually, I knew that. But don't worry It's good to be reminded. I do have one more specific question before I …….

M1: Sure What's that?

M3: In Uruguay it's customary to shake hands, and I know That people greet each other with the Wai. Will it seem impolite for a foreigner to do the wai? -and what happens if I don't do it right? Will that be …….?

M1: Absolutely not! Just put the …… of your hands together on your chest and …… slightly Say "Sawatdee-khrab For the women listening, you say "Sawatdee kaa. You will …….. hearts with that. Don't worry if you don't do it exactly the way Thais do it. And don't worry about the pronunciation Have a wonderful trip to Thailand. Try to do some sightseeing And taste our wonderful food

M3: Thanks so much

F1: Thank YOU Jettrin and Arturo, for a good lesson in cultural literacy. Let's take a …….. and then another call

CALL 2 Hiroko and Nadia [F3 = Japanese]

F3: Thank you, Millicent, My husband and I are going to Dubai. He's a banker and has business there, but I'm going with him as a tourist I'm very interested in all kinds of culture, and I understand Dubai is very different from Japan I have three questions.

F2: Hello, Hiroko. Nadia on the line.

F3: Thanks, Nadia. If I'm alone can I walk on the street or drive a car? When we went to Saudi Arabia, women were not …… to go out alone or drive

F2: Absolutely. As a woman traveler, you will have no difficulty …… even if you are alone. You can drive, and as long as you dress ……., you can wear whatever you like

F3: Second question. I don't speak any Arabic

F2: Again, no problem. As you know, Arabic is the …….. language of Dubai, but English is commonly used in tourism and …….

F3: You speak very good English, Nadia Where did you learn it?

F2: I actually am an English teacher. I learned my English in the United States, at the University of Wisconsin.

F3: And my last question I'm an …….. photographer. Will I be able to take pictures in Dubai?

F2: Well yes, but you should know that it is considered offensive to take pictures of Muslim women here

F3: Oh I'm glad I asked. What about pictures of men?

F2 Well, yes, just be sure to ask permission

F3: I don't know how to thank you. I'm really ……. to the trip!

F1: We'll be right back with our final call

BETTY SONG (Chinese)

There is nothing like more than ……..with a good book. I like all kinds of literature-novels, general fiction, short stories... I also read a lot of books written by Japanese authors, translated into Chinese. My favorite ……., though, is Chang Ailing. She is a very famous author from China. Her work has inspired women for many generations.

I like to read whenever I have a bit of quiet time-like early in the morning or during lunch hour-and at night when I'm lying in bed I usually read in a small room next to my living room. It's like a small library with good ……... I really don't enjoy reading in coffee shops or other ……... I need a quiet space to read.

For me, reading is a …… experience that gives me great personal ……. Television and movies can't do that. I can't understand why anyone doesn't enjoy reading. I can't think of……. to relax, to forget the …… of each day.

SILVIO FERRANTE [Spanish]

I really like to keep up with the news. I get the paper …….. on weekends, so that's when I enjoy reading it most. Pretty much from the first to the last page. During the week I enjoy …… ……. the newspaper in a café But the weekend is the best time.

There's nothing like …… in bed with the paper, a good cup of coffee, and some …….. or toast. Or when the weather is nice, sitting in the garden and reading about what's going on in the world. And, well, ……., one of my favorite places to read is in the, um, well, bathroom I can spend a good half hour there reading the paper.

Aside from newspapers, I really enjoy stopping …….. newsstands and spending about five or ten minutes …….. magazines. And of course, I also enjoy going to book shops and checking out the latest novels …….. historical novels. I just can't seem to read enough of those

MELISSA WHITE

I don't really consider myself to be …… because I don't actually read a lot of books Most of the reading I do is either on the internet-or in newspapers I can't start my day without skimming through the newspaper during breakfast, …….. what's going on in local news, or maybe what's going on in business. Mainly I just look for the articles that look interesting, and I save them for later when I get back home from work Then I like to curl up on the sofa with my newspaper and a my newspaper and a good cup of tea.

The truth is I don't have a lot of time for reading books. And I don't have a lot of interest in reading them. Once in a while, I'll read one of the best-sellers, or a good romance novel. But I spend a lot more time surfing the Internet, checking out my favorite blogs. That's where I get my information from-and my entertainment. It works for me.

MITSUHIKO YAMAGICHI [Japanese]

Last July, my wife and I took a trip to Canada to visit a place called Banff National Park. We flew from Tokyo to Vancouver, which is a beautiful city in the west of Canada, and we rented a car and drove to Banff. It's about eight hundred kilometers to the east of Vancouver, so it took about nine hours to get there. The park is located in the southwest comer of the province of Alberta

In Banff, we stayed at a huge old hotel right on Lake Louise. The Lake Louise Hotel is really famous you can see it in pictures on the internet. It was pretty expensive, but ……. Lake Louise was breathtaking-it's a beautiful …….. blue color and surrounded by mountains. Even in July, you could still see snow at the top of many of the mountains. The lake was like a mirror-when we hiked around it, we could actually see the mountains and the hotel in the lake. And ……. of the lake, at the foot of Mount Victoria, you can see Victoria Glacier. It was really ……. That's where a lot of the water in Lake Louise comes from.

There are lots of hiking paths from Lake Louise, and we ……. every day. The fresh, clean air and the green forests were amazing. One day we actually saw a bear! Another time we followed the path to Fairview Mountain, which has amazing cliffs-really …….. When you get to the top, the views are fantastic.

We also visited Johnson Canyon, a short drive from Lake Louise. There are seven different waterfalls you can visit. Near some of the falls the path was a little ……., so we had to be careful but each one was ……... My wife couldn't stop taking pictures. We spent four days there, and it was an ……. trip.

M: Well, if you ask me, it's a little …….. I'd pick something else to see instead.

F: Thanks for ……. me know.

Conversation 2

M: Terry tells me that you've been to Bash Bish Falls.

F: Did she tell you that?

M: Yeah, I'm thinking of going next week. I love waterfalls. So what do you think? Is it worth it?

F: In my opinion, it's a ……. You'd be crazy not to go.

M: Really!

Conversation 3

F: Have you ever been to ……. Island?

M: A bunch of times. Why?

F: Well, I'm wondering if it's worth a trip I'm not sure if I'd like being on an island.

M: In my opinion?

F: Yes, I'd love to hear your opinion.

M: You don't want to …… it.

F: That's all you have to say?

M: That's all I have to say.

M: So in the last days of my vacation I'm thinking of spending some time in Pipo Valley Tom told me it was spectacular

Cheryl: (on the phone) Hello. I need to get twenty-five color documents printed right away.

Mr. Evans: (on the phone) Yes, it's very much a hurry.

Cheryl: Who are you calling, Mr. Evans?

Mr. Evans: What's that? Oh, uh... my …….

Cheryl: Your tailor?

Mr. Evans: These sleeves are too long, and they're driving me crazy.

Unit 3 Scene 2

Mr. Evans: Thank you, everyone, for fixing my ……. with Mr. Wells. Now. I've asked Cheryl to plan a party for his group next Friday. I'd like for everyone to help. Cheryl, do you have a plan?

Cheryl: Yes, I do. Marie, I'd like to ……. choose a restaurant for the party.

Marie: I'd love to!

Cheryl: Bob, I'll let you choose the menu.

Bob: You will?

Cheryl: Paul, could you plan the music?

Paul: Yes!

Cheryl: Good. Now, Marie, I called ten restaurants and had them give us a price for a party room. These two had the best prices.

Marie: The Green Room is a nice restaurant.

Cheryl: Great! That's my favorite, too. Now, Bob, about the food...

Bob: I was thinking steak and potatoes and...

Cheryl: Well, the …… asked for fish or chicken. So I had the restaurant ……. together a menu with each. Which do you like better?

Bob: I like chicken more than fish, I guess.

Cheryl: Great! Chicken it is. Now Paul...

Paul: Let me guess. You have a list of music ……...

Cheryl: Yes!

Paul: …….

Cheryl: Great! I think we're all done.

Mr. Evans: You see how easy it is to plan something when we do it all together?

Marie: So …….. we could help.

Unit 4 Scene 1

Mr. Evans: Hello, Bob. …….. alone?

Bob: Paul and Marie went to get newspapers.

Mr. Evans: Do you mind if I join you?

Bob: Please, sit down.

Mr. Evans: May I ask what you're reading?

Bob: Um... A History of the World.

Mr. Evans: The ……..? I'm very impressed! Reading nonfiction over lunch! I hear that it's a very difficult book.

Bob: Oh... uh, no. It's a pretty easy read. I...I can't put it down, actually.

Mr. Evans: A real page-turner, huh? Do you think I could borrow it when you're done?

Bob: Sure.

Mr. Evans: I usually prefer fiction myself. You know, ……, mysteries... There's nothing like …….with a good science-fiction novel, is there?

Bob: You read science fiction, too?

Mr. Evans: Don't tell anyone. Are you learning a lot from your book?

Bob: Uh, yes. I think so.

Mr. Evans: So tell me what you're reading about right now.

Bob: Um... this part is about Great Britain.

Mr. Evans: Really? Do you mind if I take a look?

Bob: Cheryl hates when I read comics.

Mr. Evans: Then I can understand why you can't put the book down. Do you think that I could borrow it, then?

Bob: I'm still reading this one, but I have another one I can …….. you.

Mr. Evans: I meant this one.

Bob: Oh, help yourself.

Unit 4 Scene 2

Paul: Look at this. The paper says that a tornado carried a woman for 300 miles, and she lived to tell about it.

Marie: I'm not sure if you know this, but that story isn't true.

Paul: It's in the …….. It must be true.

Marie: That paper is ……. I can't believe you're reading it.

Paul: What do you mean?

Marie: It's …….., not news. Nothing in there is true. If you want real news, you have to read this paper.

Paul: That paper is boring. This one's much more interesting.

Marie: "Woman Gives Birth to Cow!" "Man Builds House from Bread!" "Baby with Two Heads!" Come on. This is ……...

Paul: "Storm Kills 100 in Texas." "Train Accident Kills Five, Injures More." "Man Kills Wife and Son." I'm sorry, but all that death and …… is pretty offensive to me.

Marie: I know that these things happened. And I know that those didn't.

Paul: You don't know that. You just …… that it's true.

Marie: Let's ask Bob and Mr. Evans what paper they read. Never mind. Let's just read.

Paul: That sounds good to me. Look at this! "A Man with Four Legs!"

Unit 4 On-The-Street Interviews

Interviewer: Do you …… do a lot of reading?

Herb: She does.

Blanche: I do, ……. I like to read novels and ……. stories, sometimes travel stories.

Interviewer: Do you buy books, or do you get them from the library?

Lorayn: I buy books, and I …… to trade them with friends.

Interviewer: How about books on tape?

Blanche: I tried that. They put me to sleep.

Interviewer: So, novels. You like to read ……. Who are some of your favorite ……..?

Dan: I just read Nick Hornby-How to Be Good-which was probably the funniest book I've ever read.

Interviewer: Would you say it's a real ……..?

Dan: Absolutely. Absolutely. I mean, belly laughs on every page.

Interviewer: So, do you read anything else like newspapers, magazines?

Alvino: I do read magazines, yes.

Interviewer: Could you tell me, let's see, what sorts of magazines you like to read?

Alvino: Fashion. I enjoy fashion-Details, actually.

Interviewer. How about how-to magazines? Do you ever buy …….. about home repair or cooking, …….?

Lorayn: I buy my husband magazines on... how-to magazines. He's the one that's good at fixing things and repair, even cooking.

Interviewer: How about newspapers? Do you read newspapers?

Dan: The New York Times when I'm home.

Interviewer: And what part of the newspapers are most important to you?

Dan: The …… and "Arts and Leisure."

Unit 5 Scene 1

Mr. Evans: So, Mrs. Beatty, you're looking for an exciting place for your next vacation.

Mrs. Beatty: I usually travel to …… cities in Europe, but this time I want to go someplace different-someplace away from the city-a…….it's safe.

Mr. Evans: How about California? The Big Sur area is spectacular.

Mrs. Beatty: California has lots of earthquakes, doesn't it?

Mr. Evans: Well, they have earthquakes ……, but not very often.

Mrs. Beatty: But it …… have earthquakes.

Mr. Evans: Yes.

Mrs. Beatty: I'm not going.

Mr. Evans: OK. How about someplace in Asia? A beach in Thailand? Ko Chang has beautiful beaches, and it's very quiet there.

Mrs. Beatty: A quiet beach sounds nice. But they said on the news there's a ……. in Thailand.

Mr. Evans: But the monsoon will be over by the time you go.

Mrs. Beatty: What else can you ……..?

Mr. Evans: Australia. The Australian ……. is amazing.

Mrs. Beatty: I've heard they have …….. in Australia.

Mr. Evans: Well, some parts...

Mrz. Beatty: Where else?

Mr. Evans: Jamaica?

Mrs. Beatty: Hurricanes.

Mr. Evans: South Africa?

Mrs. Beatty: Floods.

Mr. Evans: Hawaii?

Mrs. Beatty: …….

Mr. Evans: You know a lot about natural disasters, don't you, Mrs. Beatty? Let's see. What about Finland?

Mrs. Beatty: Finland?

Mr. Evans: It's wild, beautiful, and very different from other parts of Europe. And nothing bad ever happens in Finland.

Mrs. Beatty: Finland sounds good. I'll go to Finland.

Mr. Evans: Great. I'll book your tickets.

Unit 5 Scene 2

Mr. Evans: OK, I just ……. your tickets to Helsinki, Finland. You'll be staying at the Palace Hotel.

Mrs. Beatty: That's great.

Marie: Excuse me, Mr. Evans?

Mr. Evans: Yes, Marie?

Marie: Mr. Woods is on the phone. He told me to tell you it's ……...

Mr. Evans: ……?

Marie: He's traveling, you know.

Mr. Evans: Yes?

Marie: He said there's some kind of epidemic.

Mr. Evans: What kind of epidemic?

Marie: It sounds like it's that new ……...

Mr. Evans: But he was vaccinated for that before he left.

Marie: I know. But he told me to tell you that he wants to fly home today.

Mr. Evans: On the Internet it says only three people are sick. That is not an …….. And it's not like anybody's ……. from this flu.

Marie: He said he didn't want to be the first.

Mrs. Beatty: Where is he traveling, may I ask?

Marie: He's in Finland.

Mrs. Beatty: Finland? I just ……. tickets to Finland!

Mr. Evans: Mrs. Beatty, everything will be fine. You'll get ……., and you'll have nothing to worry about.

Mrs. Beatty: I'm not going to Finland. You told me nothing bad ever happens in Finland.

Mr. Evans: Mrs. Beatty, I can't think of anywhere in the world you can go and be completely safe. Right here in this city you could go outside and …….. by a bus. But you can't let that stop you from doing the things you want to do. Look, why don't we go to …… and we'll ……..?

Marie: I don't think she's going anywhere.

Unit 6 Scene 1

Marie: Another wonderful dinner, Cheryl. Thank you.

Cheryl: You're welcome. I really enjoy cooking. Actually, when I was young, I thought I was going to be a chef.

Paul: You could be a ……... These cookies are fantastic!

Marie: Why didn't you become a chef?

Cheryl: My mother talked me out of it. She thought I would always have to work at night. She was afraid I would never meet a man and ……..

Paul: She was probably right. If you were a chef, you wouldn't have met Bob.

Cheryl: How do you know?

Paul: Before he met you, Bob only ate fast food.

Bob: It's true.

Mr. Evans: Your mother must have been very happy when you and Bob got ……...

Cheryl: She was. Hey, you'll never guess what Bob was going to be.

Bob: Cheryl...

Marie: A rock musician?

Paul: A basketball player?

Cheryl: No, Bob was going to be a dancer. He was actually in the state ……. when he was young. Marie: No kidding!

Paul: You never told me this!

Bob: I could have been a great dancer.

Paul: What made you change your mind?

Bob: The diet was too hard. I had to stop eating everything-chocolate cake, fried chicken, potato chips. I tried. I might have been able to do it. But then they said no more

……. Bread and butter! Can you believe it? And that was the end.

Marie: Wow, Bob. I never knew. Do you enjoy watching ballet at all?

Bob: I can't. I'd like to, but as soon as the music starts, I get very, very... hungry

Unit 6 Scene 2

Marie: What about you, Mr. Evans? What did you think you were going to be when you were younger?

Mr. Evans: If I tell you, will you ……. to laugh?

Marie: Of course.

Mr. Evans: I always thought I would have my own television program to talk about ……..

Cheryl: I didn't know you were so interested in etiquette.

Mr. Evans: I have always loved etiquette. I think I would have made a great television etiquette teacher.

Cheryl: Well, I think you could still do it. It's …… for you.

Mr. Evans: Really? Why?

Cheryl: Well, you're very polite, for one thing.

Bob: You always know which fork to use at a restaurant. That's a real talent.

Paul: You've taught me a lot about the …….. of other cultures.

Mr. Evans: Maybe I could still ……..

"Today's topic: dinner conversation. If your international guests look ……. and are leaving the table early, you've probably chosen a topic that's taboo in their home country. Find out what's …… and what's not. coming up on International Etiquette with Evans."

What do you think?

Bob: Wow.

Cheryl: Amazing.

Marie: Unforgettable.

Paul: You have a real talent all right.

Mr. Evans: Thank you.

Unit 6 On-The-street Interviews

Interviewer: Could you tell me what your …….. or occupation …….?

Rita: I'm an elementary school teacher.

Matt: My career …… will be in marketing, helping companies build their brand and help market products to the general ……..

San: I work in television, and I would like to …… produce and direct.

Interviewer: Did you think that you'd be in marketing when you were a child?

Matt: No. I thought I'd be ……. of the United States or drive a fire truck.

Interviewer: What made teaching a good career for you?

Rita: First of all, I love children, and I liked the idea of …….. some of my knowledge to young ones.

Interviewer. Everybody has skills, talents, and abilities, so, you know, some people are artistic, others have ……... What would you say are some of your skills?

San: I would say I have a lot of artistic ability. I did a lot of art in school.

Matt: Good question. My skills and talents would be coming up with new ideas, different ideas, creative ideas that kind of build a buzz around a product.

Interviewer. Do you think that talents and abilities are ……?

San: I think they're a combination of both genetics and environment. I think that you are born with certain ……. that your parents I think have, and just living with some people around you and learning from your teachers and those that you're ……. interacting with, you …… certain skills.

Unit 7 Scene 1

Bob: I don't know. I didn't know that planning a wedding would be so hard.

Cheryl: Marie, could you …….. opinion on a few things?

Marie: I'd love to!

Cheryl: First, how many people should we invite? Bob wants a small wedding.

Bob: Twenty guests would be nice.

Cheryl: I want a large wedding. About 300 people.

Bob: Three hundred?! Yesterday you said 2001

Cheryl: I have a lot of relatives who want to come.

Bob: Then there's the location. I always thought I would get married in a park or at the beach.

Marie: That's so romantic !

Cheryl: I would like to get married ……., where I won't get ……. if it's raining.

Marie: That makes sense.

Cheryl: I prefer traditional music in the ceremony.

Bob: …….. music.

Cheryl: I'd like a long ceremony, and a short reception.

Bob: I want a short ceremony, and a huge celebration afterwards.

Cheryl: I want a white cake.

Bob: And I want...

Marie: A chocolate cake, I know.

Bob: How are we ever going to ……. this?

Marie: Don't hurt yourself. Here's an idea that might work. Plan a wedding that's big enough to include all of Cheryl's family ...sorry, Bob... in the park on Oak Street that has that building where you can go if it rains. You can have traditional music in the ceremony and contemporary music at the party, and you could have two cakes at the ……-one white and one chocolate.

Bob: Sounds OK to me.

Cheryl: Me, too.

Bob: Hey! We did it!

Cheryl: Yeah! I'm so happy.

Marie: Excuse me.

Cheryl: Oh, Marie, thank you so much.

Bob: You're amazing! We couldn't have done it without you.

Unit 7 Scene 2

Paul: Hi. ……. is over. Are you coming up to the office?

Bob: I'm too tired to go back to the office. Planning a wedding is hard work. I need a holiday.

Paul: Let's make today a holiday. We'll tell Mr. Evans we can't come back to work.

Bob: That's a great idea.

Marie: What are we …….?

Paul: You're getting married. How about National Wedding Day?

Bob: What happens on National Wedding Day?

Paul: I don't know. Why am I the one who has to think of everything?

Marie: Why don't we make it National Singles Day ……..? All the married people give gifts to their single friends.

Bob: No. Buying gifts is hard work. I want to enjoy myself on our new holiday.

Cheryl: What about a Red Day? Everybody wears red clothes, and there's dancing in the street that goes on all night.

Bob: How about National Buy-Your-Friend-Another-Cup-of-Coffee Day?

Paul: ……..

Mr. Evans: How about National On-Time Day?

Bob: What happens on National On-Time Day?

Mr. Evans: You …… one another to come back to work on time.

Paul: Happy holiday.

Mr. Evans: Waitress!

Unit 7 On-The-Street Interviews

Interviewer: You're from Germany. What is a wedding like in Germany?

Jessica: Well, ……., you have to have a …… ceremony where you go to the City Hall, and... well, you make everything official. And then traditionally, you go to church and have the religious ceremony.

Interviewer. And is there a wedding reception ……?

Jessica: Usually there is, of course. After church when everybody's waiting for the …… and the …… coming out and throwing rice at them and flowers, and then the whole ……. going to a nice place and having dinner and having a party.

Interviewer. You mentioned that your family is originally from Ghana.

Emma: Yes.

Interviewer: Could you tell me a little bit about the …… and marriage ceremonies of your country?

Emma: There's a traditional sometimes they do involve, like the American type of wedding, the very traditional. You walk down the aisle. But they also, there's also the traditional part in African culture. You wear the clothing and the outfits. It's much longer. Sometimes it can go into the next day. Some people …….

Interviewer: Tell me about the reception.

Emma: They find a place to go to, or it's outside sometimes, there's a big tent. It just depends on the bride and groom, what they want. And there's tons of dancing, traditional dancing, eating, lots of food. Sometimes you have somebody come in and talk about how they know him and how good he is and what he's done and, you know, people giving lots of …….. of how to be together. It's just...it's just really a great thing.

Unit 8 Scene 1

Marie: What are those …….. glasses you are wearing?

Bob: These are ultra high-tech, …….., state-of-the-art, cutting-edge TV glasses.

Marie: And you're actually watching TV right now?

Bob: Yeah. Right here ……. the corner.

Marie: What are you watching?

Bob: The basketball game.

Marie: Unbelievable. And Cheryl doesn't …….. this?

Bob: Yes!

Marie: What?

Bob: Sorry. My team's winning.

Marie: This new invention doesn't bother you?

Cheryl: Are you kidding? If I had known how happy they would make him, I would have bought those glasses for Bob ……..

Marie: Technology today is amazing. You know, I wish they'd invent something that would make people who talk on cell phones ……... This guy in the café today was so loud, I couldn't hear myself talking.

Bob: Ha-ha-ha

Marie: It wasn't funny.

Bob: What? Oh, sorry. I was laughing at this guy on V.

Cheryl: If I could invent something, it would be a thing for Bob's car that would automatically …… him when he goes over the ……... He drives so fast sometimes, but he'd slow down if he had to pay.

Bob: No!

Marie: Is your team losing?

Bob: No. I heard what you said. You just leave my car alone.

Unit 8 Scene 2

Cheryl: Hi, Paul.

Paul: Wait 'til you see what I've got.

Bob: What is it?

Paul: Well, I have this problem with my cell phone. …… I'm traveling with a group, I can never hear it ring or feel it ……. So I got this thing that lets me know whenever my phone is ringing. Marie: How does it do that?

Paul: It …… me.

Marie: Buzzes?

Paul: You know, bzzz, bzzz. So I can feel it.

Cheryl: Does it work?

Paul: I don't know. No one's called me ……---... Ow!

Marie: What?!

Paul: Someone's calling me! Hello? Hello? No one's there. Wow. That was a big buzz. That almost hurt.

Cheryl: Maybe it isn't working right.

Paul: It's working fine... Ooh! Ow! Another phone call. Hello? Hello? That's strange. Man, if I ever get used to that, I'll always know …….. my phone is ringing... Ahhhhhhh! Stop calling me!

Marie: Paul. If I were you, …… that thing back to the store before you hurt yourself.

Paul: I'm going. I'll see you later.

Marie: I hope he can drive OK.

Bob: He'll be fine.

Cheryl: How do you know?

Bob: I'll stop ……. him.

Unit 9 Scene 1

Paul: Did you see the politicians …… to raise taxes again?

Bob: Really? What has the government ……. to spend our money on now?

Paul: They're planning to build a stronger ……...

Marie: It's wrong to spend so much on the military. They should spend it on …… instead.

Cheryl: Can we please …….. discussing politics?

Marie: Why?

Cheryl: Every time we begin talking about politics, people get …… at each other.

Bob: They should spend more money on fighting ……. If they were able to stop corrupt officials, maybe they wouldn't need to raise our taxes.

Paul: That's true, but I think we need to spend more money on the military. Without a strong military, the world won't be very safe.

Marie: That's one way to look at it. But maybe the world would be safer and better-if we tried to …… poverty.

Bob: What do you think, Cheryl?

Cheryl: I think that if I say what I really think, you'll get all mad and call me crazy or …….

Marie: Cheryl. Don't be so afraid. We're only talking.

Cheryl: I think that the government should spend more money on cooking schools.

Marie: What?

Cheryl: Most people don't know how to cook well. I think the government should help teach them.

Marie: That's ridiculous!

Bob: Are you crazy?

Paul: Use our taxes to pay for cooking schools?

Cheryl: Of course not! But look at you. You're all mad at me. This is why I never discuss politics with friends. But ……you from getting mad at each other.

Unit 9 Scene 2

Marie: Paul, I never knew you were so …….

Paul: I'm not conservative.

Marie: ……. You always ……. to want things to be just like they used to be.

Paul: That's not conservative. That's just smart. (to Cheryl) Thanks.

Marie: That's the definition of conservative.

Paul: Really? Well, I didn't know you were so ……..

Marie: What makes you think I'm radical?

Paul: You always want to change everything.

Marie: No, I don't. I just want our government to ……. that it's the twenty-first century and they need new ways of doing things. (to Cheryl) Thank you.

Paul: That sounds radical to me.

Marie: Bob, tell him I'm not a radical.

Bob: She's not a radical. She's a liberal. Like me.

Marie: I wouldn't call you a liberal.

Bob: Oh, really?

Marie: I'd say you're more of a ..... You're always in the middle.

Bob: If I want to be a liberal, I'll be a liberal. (to Cheryl) Thank you, honey.

Marie: You can be whatever you want, you just can't be one thing and call it something else.

Paul: Listen to you. You're like a little dictator.

Marie: I studied politics in school. I know something about the definitions of political beliefs.

Paul: ……..? So what is Cheryl? A radical? Moderate? Conservative?

Marie: Who knows? She's not saying.

Paul: Cheryl, what are you? Would you mind telling us that much?

Cheryl: OK. You want to know what I believe? I believe... I believe... I believe these are the best chips I have ever tasted.

Unit 9 On-The-Street Interview

Interviewer: How do you feel about …….. smoking indoors?

Ian: As a smoker I don't ……. it all the time, but I can understand why.

Christiane: I think it's fantastic. I think it's great. If you go to restaurants and nobody can smoke, the food tastes better and your clothes don't smell.

Interviewer. How about …… of books or movies by a government?

Stephan: I am 100 percent against censorship of any books or movies or any expression of ……, and I feel that when governments try to censor books or movies, then it creates a sort of …….. of fear, and people don't get to... don't have ready access to information that should be available to them.

Interviewer: If you could tell me maybe two things that you think are big problems in the world today....

Christiane: I think one of the biggest problems is war. And I think another big problem is ……. in this world.

Interviewer: And of those, could you tell me, you know, a little bit more about …….. could be done to …….. these problems?

Christiane: I think, actually with both problems, it's mostly about understanding each other and……..e and... talk, get to know each other and be able to make more ……. and understand different cultures and reasons why people do certain things certain ways. And I think we would all be much happier.

Interviewer: Communication.
Christiane: Communication. That's the ……... Exactly. Yeah.

Unit 10 Scene 1

Cheryl: Everyone, we'd like to ask your opinion about something.

Mr. Evans: What is that?

Cheryl: We're trying to decide where to go on vacation after the wedding, for our ……..

Bob: We thought you might be able to help us decide on a location.

Mr. Evans: An excellent idea. Where are you thinking of going?

Cheryl: Well, Bob doesn't really like to travel, so he's ……. to go wherever I want to go, as long as the hotel has nice bathrooms and a TV.

Mr. Evans: That sounds ……... What's your first choice?

Cheryl: I've always wanted to go to Cozumel, off the Yucatán Peninsula.

Paul: Cozumel is ……... The island itself is pretty ……., but the beaches are beautiful and the ocean is so blue.

Marie: Aren't there too many sharks to go swimming there?

Paul: No! It's very safe. What? Oh! But it's somewhat ……...

Bob: You just said...

Mr. Evans: What else are you thinking of?

Cheryl: What about Tierra del Fuego in the south of Argentina and Chile?

Paul: The scenery is extraordinary! The mountain ranges and national parks are …….

Marie: But in June, won't it be too dark to do very much?

Paul: No! Plenty of people go there in June to go skiing or... But, of course, it's probably not romantic enough for a ……...

Cheryl: I've heard the jungles and rain forests in Malaysia are a ……..

Paul: They're so ……-.... Of course, some people feel that the …….. make it too dangerous to hike.

Bob: We could go to that hotel on Grand Street along the river.

Cheryl: Stay in town? For our honeymoon?

Bob: Well, I heard the rooms have really nice bathrooms and big televisions.

Unit 10 Scene 2

Marie: Cheryl, you once told me that you wanted to go to Tahiti.

Cheryl: That's right. I forgot about that.

Mr. Evans: You ……. Tahiti.

Paul: One of the most beautiful places on earth.

Marie: And very, very romantic.

Cheryl: Really? You all think Tahiti is a good idea?

Mr. Evans: I think you'd love it.

Bob: It's …….. ……..

Cheryl: How expensive?

Bob: Well, do you remember how much Mr. Rashid's vacation to Tahiti cost?

Cheryl: Yes, I do.

Bob: He traveled ……...

Cheryl: Well, that's it. I'm ……. I guess we'll go someplace boring.

Mr. Evans: We weren't going to tell you until a …….. of months from now, but Paul, Marie, and I were talking, and we thought a vacation in the South Pacific would be perfect.

Cheryl: I just wish we could afford it.

Mr. Evans: So we decided that as our …….. …….. to you, we would like to send you to Tahiti. All …….. paid. Cheryl: You're kidding!

Mr. Evans: We've booked your flights and a hotel on the ……. for two weeks.

Cheryl: I don't know how to thank you!

Bob: But the...

Mr. Evans: And the hotel room has a ……. bathroom and a TV this big.

Bob: I don't know how to thank you!

Cheryl: Thank you so much! I'm so excited!
